

Recruiting for the 19th Light Dragoons Regiment

War of 1812

The 19th Regiment of Light Dragoons are looking for a few good men to repel the American invaders.

All able bodied men with horses are urged to enlist in this famous Regiment.

We offer adventure, travel and comradeship in his Majesties service.

The 19th Light Dragoons are a local Re-enactment Unit based in the southern Ontario region. We are looking for additional mounted troops attend the Bi-centennial events in the area.

Fort George/Fort Erie, Bath/Kinston, Stoney Creek

The Bi-centennial Events will be ongoing till 2014 with many events in the US and Canada. As a living history unit we bring the past to life for young and old alike. The 19th Light Dragoons portray the only British Cavalry Unit to serve in Canada during the War of 1812.

The Unit currently has 9 members along with their ladies.

We offer full formal dress social events and an annual Regimental dinner to enhance and complete the social atmosphere of the Unit.

We are looking for additional people that have a love for history and horses. Where else can you combine the two, while at the same time bringing history to life for thousands of spectators at the local events like Queenston Heights, the premier event for 2012 in southern Ontario.

Remember this is a Bi-centennial Celebration.

We can only attend one Bi-centennial of the War of 1812, in our lifetime.
